General Objective:

Facilitate discussions, brainstorming, and sharing about what worked last school year and what was unsuccessful, to review websites, apps, and programs, and apply all to developing a plan for pandemic year - round two.

Specific Objectives:

1. Hybrid class management tips/successes
2. Programs and apps that worked
3. Share successful methods of instruction in a hybrid environment
4. Create a plan that is fundamentally successful
5. Agree to meet periodically to update

Activities:

1. Read these or similar articles:
  - “Teaching in-person and virtual students at once? It’s an instructional nightmare, some educators say.” - Kalyn Belsha Oct 1, 2020 EDT www.chalkbeat.com
  - “Strategies for Teaching Students Online and Face to Face at the Same Time: What are the do’s and don’ts of hybrid teaching?” Larry Ferlazzo — February 28, 2021 www.edweek.org
  - “5 Keys to Success in Hybrid Learning” Juliana Finegan, May 12, 2021, www.edutopia.com
2. Review and evaluate Zoom Cart and other technology resources
3. Time to navigate through grade/age-appropriate websites and applications for student achievement in different settings
4. Time to do additional training on Zoom, Google, etc.

Evaluation:

1. Fill out FCIS course evaluation form
2. Take a survey evaluating tools and resources available at the school
3. Put together a “things that work” list to share
4. Write a reflection on personal positives for starting the school year
