

Learning with Technology

In-service Points 30

Component No. 3 007 015

General Objective:

To enhance classroom learning through the use of technology.

Specific Objectives:

1. To learn how to use a software application that has the potential as a teaching tool.
2. To learn how to incorporate the software into specific course units.
3. To learn how to enhance student engagement, content understanding and skill development through specific activities related to the software.

Activities:

1. Participants participate in daily, or weekly or other scheduled activities and training.
2. Participants complete online in-class activities to reinforce lessons.
(i.e. BrainPOP, youtube videos, etc.)
3. Participants complete online homework between lessons, as required.

Evaluation:

1. Graded homework, and/or
2. Online quizzes, and/or
3. Completed surveys
4. FCIS evaluation form.

The Benjamin School
December 2019