

Attention Deficit Disorder- Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder

12 Inservice Points

Component No. 4 102 001

General Objective

To increase competencies of teachers in recognizing and understanding symptoms of ADD of ADHD as presented by the child in the classroom setting.

Specific Objectives

Participants will be able to:

1. Recognize the symptoms of ADD and ADHD.
2. List the developmental course of the disorders.
3. Explain the etiology of the disorders.
4. Refer students with ADHD or ADD to proper agencies for evaluation and treatment.
5. Determine what intervention methods would be appropriate within the school's curriculum.

Activities

1. Lecture
2. Audiovisual materials
3. Handouts and discussion

Evaluation

1. Pre and post tests where appropriate.
2. Observed demonstration in the workshop.
3. Utilization of skills in the classroom with the target population of students.
4. Participants will complete a workshop evaluation form.

