

PANDEMIC PERSPECTIVES

*****
60 Inservice Points Component No.: 6-414-006
*****

General Objective:

- Background of pandemics
- Healthcare related aspects of a pandemic
- The economic vulnerabilities and consequences of a pandemic

Specific Objectives:

- For educators to be able to discuss pandemics both historically and scientifically to students and colleagues.
- To get an overview of the COVID-19 pandemic.
- Lessons learned from pandemics.
- Enlightened administrators, school nurses, and staff of current findings of COVID-19.

Activities:

- Participate in an online program such as:
<https://www.pba.edu/academics/online/non-degree-courses/pandemic-perspective-course.html>.
- Participate in other local or community awareness events/programs, etc. on COVID-19.
- Participate in group/department or faculty meetings about today’s pandemic obstacles.

Evaluation:

- Complete FCIS Professional Development activity form.
- Survey participants/contributors, if applicable.
- Complete FCIS short survey.

The Benjamin School
August, 2020